

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 3, 1745.

Limbourg, March 31.

HE Dutch Troops are now much better supplied with Provisions than they have been, the Contractors having taken more Cattle and Carriages into their Service. The Hanoverians are quarter'd about Weilbourg, and their Head Quarters are in the Town of the same Name. General Druch-Wetzlar, the Garison of which has been reinforce'd by a Thousand Hanoverians. In not a Day passes without Skirmishes; and in happen'd lately near Bevenbach, the Austrians considerable Advantage. There happen'd, not long ago, an odd enough Accident; the Hanoverians had a quantity of Ammunition which pass'd the Lahn at a confiding of several Waggon; one of which open'd, seem'd full of Musket-Bullets, but, in contained a Month's Pay for the Troops. But notwithstanding all this Precaution, the French had notice of it, and Captain Fisher, at the Head of a Company, was sent to carry it off; he had certainly done, if he had come half an hour later; for the Waggon had but just pass'd the bridge, and was met by a large Escort of Dragoons, who conducted it safe to the Head Quarters. The French have made great Contributions in the Wetteraw.

The Austrian Head Quarters at Valpurg in Batsch, March 28. Upon the 21st of this Month the General Bathiani pass'd the Inn in three Companies at Passau, Scharding, and Braunau; and a Body of 1000 Men was immediately detached towards Pfarkirchen in order to cut off the Enemy's Garison there. The 22d General Trips, who commanded this Army, attacked the Enemy's Avant Guard near Trifels, having killed some of their Hussars, the rest fled towards Pfarkirchen, in which Place there were 1000 Men, who at first made a very brisk Fire upon the Austrians, but they at last took to Flight. In this Encounter the four Officers, and above 200 Men, Prisoners were taken. Upon the 24th we bombard'd the Castle of Trifels, the Garison of which quickly surrendered at Discretion. Soon after having received Advice that the Austrians had abandoned Allspach and Eggenfelden, General Trips advanced towards Vilshoven, in which Place there are two entire Regiments of Hessians, some belonging to the Bavarian Corps, and some to the Austrian, in all about 3000 Men. We have already in the Town; and having made all the necessary Preparations for a formal Attack, we hope very soon to be Masters of it. To-morrow General Bathiani sets out for Vienna, and the Command of the Army will be taken over by Lieutenant-General Velt Marshal Count Brown. April 1. Yesterday Morning an Express arrived from Landshut, with Advices from Marshal Count Brown, importing, that on Monday last the Austrians at Vilshoven having sent a Trumpet to M. de Trips, who commanded there for the Elector of Bavaria, demanding the Surrender of the Place, and that he comply'd with, they began immediately to bombard it; and that the City having been set on Fire in several Places, whilst the Garrison employed in extinguishing it, the Austrians had cut and cut to Pieces the greatest Part of them, and three Hessian Battalions, one of which was killed, and a great Detachment of the Bavarian Army, in all near 1800 Men. We are every Minute expecting a more particular Account of this Action. The above was related to Count Thoring, first by the Elector's Servant, and afterwards by a Hessian Colonel who had both made their Escape from Vilshoven, and Storming of it by the Austrians. March 30. The 7th of next Month is fix'd for the departure of the Prince of Conti, who is to command the Army in Germany; and 19 Lieutenant-Generals, and many Marshals de Camp, are to serve under him. Among the Lieutenant-Generals named to serve are the following Princes of the Blood; the Count de Chartres, the Count de Clermont, the Prince de Conti, the Count d'Eu, and the Duke de Penthièvre. Officers that serve in Italy have been also named. We lately had Advice from Lyons, that the Count de Clermont had reduced the Mutineers there, and that the King had reduced the Number of 50, are in safe Custody; but it is believed, that none, or at most a few, will be made Examples; but, on the other hand, it is suspected, that a Handle will be taken from hence, to raise a Battalion or two of Militia out of the Journeymen in that City. Our Actions will not mount, notwithstanding all the Pains we take about them; they are at present at 1190, and it is as much as we can do to keep them there.

Malines, April 1. The Dukes of Aremberg pass'd thro' this City two Days ago with M. Konigsegg, who arriv'd the Day before Yesterday at Brussels. We learn from that City, that the States of the Province have actually under their Consideration the Quantum of an extraordinary Subsidy which the Court has demand'd from them. We have, from time to time, reinforced all the Garisons of our Frontier Places; and that of Namur, consists, at present, of 15,000 Men. We recruit with great Diligence and Success; but it is thought we shall find it difficult to fill our Magazines, because the French have carried off all the Provisions and Forage on the Frontiers of Flanders, and in the Country situated between the Meuse and the Sambre: Their Forces are still in Motion about Valenciennes and Maubeuge, to which last Place they have lately transported a Train of heavy Artillery; from whence we look upon it as a Thing certain, that they intend to open the ensuing Campaign with the Siege of Mons. The English quarter'd at Ghent, and elsewhere, are making all the necessary Dispositions for taking the Field early; but it is fear'd the Army will not be completely form'd before the End of this Month. The Officers of the Dutch Train of Artillery arriv'd here this Morning; and we expect the Corps to which they belong, this Afternoon; Veldman's Regiment of Foot is also expected here very soon.

HOME PORT.

Deal, April 1. Wind W. N. W. His Majesty's Ship Duke, with the Outward-bound, remain as per last. Arriv'd the Nancy, Geest, from Jamaica; and the Success, Watts, from Pool.

ARRIVED.

At Barbados, the Industry, Milerson, from Lancaster. At Antigua, the Antigua Packet, Lesley, the Simpson, Wragg, and the Bridgetown, Barrat, all from London.

LONDON.

Some private Letters from the Hague say, that Marshal Count Konigsegg has full Power to act as he thinks fit; from whence great Expectations are rais'd, as to the Success of the ensuing Campaign.

The last Letters from Munich insinuate, that the Elector himself will command his Forces in the Summer; and that the Prince of Saxe Hildburghausen, and another General who is not named, are to command under him.

We have Advice from Amsterdam, that the Dutch will have this Summer a considerable Fleet at Sea, under the Command of Admiral Grave and Rear-Admiral Schryver.

The Helen, McNamara, from Leghorn for Dublin, is taken by the French, and carried into St. Malo's.

The Rugby Hole, Mullian, from the Leeward Islands for New York, is taken, and carried into Martinico.

A Ship belonging to New England, from Cork for Barbados, is taken by a French Privateer from Martinico.

The Captain of the Maria Hester, from S. Domingo, brought into Bristol, says, that the 5th of April, N. S. he saw 12 or 14 Ships engaged; but knows no Particulars, being two Leagues from them.

By a Letter from on board the Vernon Privateer, Captain French, dated at Sea, in the Lat. of Cape Finister, the 19th of March, we hear, that on the 12th of March he left Terrer, one of the Western Islands; and that he was informed by the Consul, that they had seen a Squadron of French Men of War in February, who were waiting to convoy Nine Sail of Spanish Galleons, and expected them every Hour.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated February the 14th, 1745.

The Delia, Nairne, from this Place for London, and several other Vessels, are carried into Porto Rico, but can't learn who they are. Our Men of War have, within these few Days, brought in here a French Privateer Sloop with 143 Hands; the Merlin Sloop has brought in one of 80 odd Hands; Capt. Douglas has brought in the Ship —, Capt. Mallet, from Bourdeaux with Wine, and sundry other Things; and the Three Sisters Snow, from Canada, with Fish. Captain Philpot has brought in a Ship from Marceilles, called the S. Jess, and the Mentor of Bourdeau. Commodore Knowles is returned from a Cruise; and the Weymouth Man of War turning in, was run a-ground, and 'tis fear'd will not be got off.
